

Wellness Wheel of Recovery + Cornerstones

Wellness Wheel of Recovery + Cornerstones

8 Primary Dimensions as defined by SAMHSA –

Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration: www.samhsa.gov

- 1. Emotional: Ability to cope effectively with life and build satisfying relationships with others
 - CeDAR focus: Non-chemical coping skills, nurturing healthy relationships and friendships, trauma and stress management, effective communication, implementing and maintaining boundaries, identifying & allowing emotions
- 2. Environmental: Occupying pleasant, stimulating environments that support well-being
 - CeDAR Focus: Steering clear of risky environments, being in nature, creating safe and stimulating spaces for yourself, tending to the spaces you occupy, sober living
- 3. Financial: Satisfaction with current and future financial situations
 - CeDAR Focus: Budgeting, balance between paying bills, saving & spending, managing debt, financial amends, paying legal fees & fines, assessing want vs. need
- 4. Intellectual: Recognizing creative abilities and finding ways to expand knowledge and skills
 - CeDAR Focus: Spending time in a meaningful & enjoyable way, willingness to continue learning, healthy creative & recreational outlet, willingness to try to new things
- 5. Occupational: Personal satisfaction and enrichment from one's work
 - CeDAR Focus: Life/work balance, informing appropriate employers and co-workers of recovery status, having a plan for work parties, business deals and travelling.
- 6. Physical: Recognizing the need for physical activity, healthy eating, and sleep
- 7. CeDAR Focus: Exercise, nutrition, hydration, informing providers of recovery status, sleep hygiene, self-care, stress management, preventative care including medical and dental.
- 8. Social: Developing a sense of connection, belonging and a well-developed support system
 - CeDAR Focus: Peer support, citizenship, engaging in a variety of communities, maintaining communication with family and friends, socialization through activities
- 9. Spiritual: Expanding a sense of purpose and meaning in life
 - CeDAR Focus: Identifying & aligning core values, findings ways to connect through practices such as prayer, meditation, journaling etc., appealing to your higher self, being open to developing a relationship with a personally defined Higher Power

CORNERSTONES:

- 1. Peer Recovery:
 - CeDAR Focus: Engaging in a variety of mutual aid groups, building and maintaining peer support, sharing your experiences, connecting to the larger recovery community
- 2. Sponsor/Mentor/Wise Friend:
 - CeDAR Focus: Willingness and follow-through with finding a sponsor/mentor/wise friend, engaging in the program with sponsor/mentor/wise friend, reaching out for support and guidance, working with others to help guide them in their own journey

